

Key working areas

High mountain ecology research, research into climate change effects, plus administrative support for the GLORIA coordination

CURRICULUM VITAE:

- Since April 2014:            Research assistant at the GLORIA coordination/ Institute for Interdisciplinary Mountain Research.
- February 2013 - September 2013:            Scientific coordinator for the MOSSCLONE Project, in Austria (<http://www.mossclone.eu/>).
- October 2011–November 2011:            Internship at the Austrian Environment Agency, focusing at investigation of introduced mosses on a global scale.
- 2011-2013:            Scientific assistant at various vegetation ecology and bioindication projects (GLORIA, national park Gesäuse).
- February 2012 - May 2012:            Research assistant at Eberhard-Karls University Tübingen, involved in the GLOWA-Project (<http://www.glowa-jordan-river.de>).
- 2008 - 2014:            Environmental educations with focus on ecology for various Institutions (WWF-Austria, Zoo-vienna, St.Martins Therme&Lodge, Blattfisch, Frohnatur).
- 2003-2010:            Diploma course conservation biology, vegetation ecology and landscape ecology at the University of Vienna. The diploma theses investigated upper and lower distribution boundaries of subalpine/alpine plants on Mt.Hochschwab/Styria, supervised by Prof. Georg Grabherr and Dr. Michael Gottfried.