

Lecture series »Austrian Studies in Egyptian Archaeology«

Kiosks and Entrance Colonnades of the 25th Dynasty

Festival Architecture in Kushite Thebes

Veronica Hinterhuber | Ludwig-Maximilians-Universität München

This lecture examines how the Kushite Pharaohs of the 25th Dynasty (8th century–663/656 BC) transformed Late Period Thebes through innovative architecture, such as kiosks and entrance colonnades, to emphasize the Theban festival cult and assert their political legitimacy.

ZOOM LINK

16 June 2026
5 pm CEST

online

ÖAW.AC.AT/OEAI