

World Archaeology Seminars: Future Archaeology – Fragile Past

Between Strikes and Memory, Stagnation and Hesitant Restoration

Laure Salloum | Directorate General of Antiquities of Lebanon (DGA)

This lecture invites reflection on the impact of conflict on both archaeological heritage and lived spaces of memory, focusing on Baalbek (Lebanon) to show how the destruction of sites like Al-Manshiyya reveals the deep social and emotional value of places beyond their monumental status.

REGISTRATION

Until 20.10.2026: maria.danna@oeaw.ac.at

CONTACT

M. Bianca D'Anna, maria.danna@oeaw.ac.at Reinhard Jung, reinhard.jung@oeaw.ac.at

21 October
2026, 17:30 CEST

Austrian Archaeological Institute
Otto Wagner Postsparkasse
Seminarroom 8+9, 5th Floor
Georg-Coch-Platz 2
1010 Vienna

PHOTO © L. SALLOUM

