

The Austrian Archaeological Institute, Athens Branch (OeAI) of the Austrian Academy of Sciences (OeAW) is offering a position as a

DOCTORAL CANDIDATE (SUR PLACE)

in the FWF project "Crossing the Sea. Pottery from Asia Minor in Athens" (30h per week)
From May 1st, 2023

Your tasks:

- Processing of the pottery finds of selected contexts from the Athenian Agora
- Identification of Asia Minor pottery imports
- Find statistics and scientific documentation of the diagnostic pottery finds
- Macroscopic fabric determination
- Recording of finds in a project database
- Compilation of catalogues and reports

Your profile:

- Master Degree in archaeology and/or similar disciplines with a focus on pottery research
- Experience in scientific processing of pottery finds from the Hellenistic to early Byzantine periods (3rd century B.C.-7th century A.D.)
- Profound knowledge of ceramic find contexts in Turkey and Greece
- Basic knowledge of archaeometry is desired
- Experience in working with databases
- Good IT skills (MS Office, Adobe, etc.)
- Excellent knowledge of modern Greek and English desirable

Our offer:

- Excellent opportunity to work in a vibrant research environment at the OeAI Athens within the OeAI Research Group Object Itineraries directed by Alice Waldner and Pamela Fragnoli
- A gross monthly salary of € 2.400 (x14 per year)
- Period of appointment: 3 years, according to Greek labour law

Please send your (1) tabular CV, (2) detailed application (max. 3 pages), (3) certificates/diplomas in PDF format, indicating "Crossing the Sea - OeAI Athens" to alice.waldner@oeaw.ac.at no later than March 15th, 2023

The Austrian Academy of Sciences (OeAW) pursues a non-discriminatory employment policy and values equal opportunities, as well as diversity. Individuals from underrepresented groups are particularly encouraged to apply.

