

Location

Princeton University
History Department
Dickinson Hall 211

Information

<http://www.princeton.edu/hellenic>

Contact

hreimitz@princeton.edu

Organized by

History Department, Princeton University
SFB Visions of Community
ERC OVERMODE

Sponsored by

Committee for the Study of Late Antiquity
Program of the Ancient World
Program for Hellenic Studies
FWF der Wissenschaftsfond
Austrian Academy of Science
University of Vienna

VISCOM
SFB Project Visions of Community

OVERMODE
ERC Project Origins of the Vernacular Mode

Workshop

Historiographies of Identity II

Historiographies
as Reflection
about Community

An
and Christi
Mo

May 24/25 2013

Friday, May 24

2:00 – 4:00

Welcome

Helmut Reimitz

History as reflection about community:
introduction

Nino Luraghi

Memory and community in early hellenistic Athens

Daniel Tober

Greek local history and the shape of the past

4:30 – 6:00

Andrew Feldherr

Love stories: the paradoxes of pleasure in Roman historiography

Ulrich Gotter

Writing empires. Greek and Roman historiography and the idea of *translatio
imperii*

Saturday, May 25

9:30 – 11:00

Tessa Rajak

Everybody's historian:
Flavius Josephus in his own time and beyond

Scott Johnson

Lists, originality, and Christian time:
Eusebius' historiography of succession

11:30 – 1:00

Mark Vessey

The Marcellinus Archive:
Augustine reflecting beforehand
on the City of God

Peter van Nuffelen

The many and the one. Communities and ecclesiastical histories in the age of Theodosius II

2:30 –

Veronika Wieser

Spanning the century: narratives between past and future in the chronicles of Jerome, Sulpicius
Severus and Hydatius

Walter Pohl

Writing Christian empire in late Antiquity

Final discussion

Ancient
and Christian
Models

PRINCETON
University of Princeton

