

Curriculum Vitae: Soustal Peter

Update: 30.06.2015

Soustal Peter

Soustal, Peter | Born 9 April 1945 in Vienna, Austria

1955–1963 High School at Realgymnasium in Wien 3, Hagenmüllergasse 30

- Academic studies at the University of Vienna: Classical Philology and Byzantine Studies
- Magister (teaching license at AHS) 1969, Promotion (PhD) 1975
- Since 1969 employee at the Austrian Academy of Sciences, Vienna; since 1973 member of the research group “Tabula Imperii Byzantini”
- occasionally Academic lectures at the University of Vienna (since 1983)
- Board member of the Austrian Byzantine Society, Vienna (since 1992). member of the Austrian National Committee of the Association Internationale des Études Byzantines.
- Congress papers in Austria, Bulgaria, France, Germany, Great Britain, Greece, Russia, Switzerland
- National and international publications concerning Historical geography of the Balkan Peninsula and Placenames
- Head of the Institute for Byzantine Studies of the Austrian Academy of Sciences (2006–June 2012)
- After the retirement honorary collaborator of the Division of Byzantine Research. Continuation of research in historical geography of Macedonia |