SECTION 3: ANCIENT IRANIAN ECONOMIES

16:30–17:15  Michael Alram | Austrian Academy of Sciences, Vienna
Money and coinage in the Achaemenid empire: production and distribution

17:15–18:00  Robert Rollinger | University of Innsbruck — University of Helsinki
Between deportation and recruitment: craftsmen and specialists from the West in Ancient Near Eastern empires (from Neo-Assyrian times until Alexander III)

18:30  Presentation of monographs on Ancient Iranian numismatics recently published by the Austrian Academy of Sciences Press, followed by a reception

Fri 31 October
Clubroom

SECTION 3: ANCIENT IRANIAN ECONOMIES (continued)

9:30–10:15  Udo Hartmann | University of Jena
Wege durch Parthien – Straßen, Handelsrouten und Kommunikation im Arsakidenreich

10:15–11:00  Fabrizio Sinisi | Austrian Academy of Sciences, Vienna
Imperial and local: the organization of coin production in the Parthian empire

11:00–11:30  Coffee break

11:30–12:15  Nikolaus Schindel | Austrian Academy of Sciences, Vienna
Sasanian mints – where and why?

12:15–13:00  Final discussion

Organisation:
Bernhard Woytek, Head of the Division Documenta Antiqua, Institute for the Study of Ancient Culture, Austrian Academy of Sciences

Website:
www.oeaw.ac.at/docant2014

Venue:
Austrian Academy of Sciences
Clubroom: Dr. Ignaz Seipel-Platz 2, 1010 Vienna
Theatersaal: Herbert Hunger Haus, Sonnenfelsgasse 19, 1010 Vienna

Contact:
bernhard.woytek@oeaw.ac.at

International Congress
Infrastructure and Distribution in Ancient Economies
The Flow of Money, Goods and Services

28–31 October 2014
Austrian Academy of Sciences, Vienna
Tue 28 October
Theatersaal

18:00
Welcome
Michael Alram | Vice President of the Austrian Academy of Sciences
Andreas Pütz | Director of the Institute for the Study of Ancient Culture
Bernhard Woytek | Head of the Division Documenta Antiqua

Evening lecture
Roger S. Bagnall | Institute for the Study of the Ancient World, New York University
Using papyrus documents for the study of an ancient economy: methods and materials from an Egyptian oasis
Buffet in the courtyard of the Herbert Hunger Haus

Wed 29 October
Clubroom

9:30–9:45
Introduction
Bernhard Woytek | Austrian Academy of Sciences, Vienna

SECTION 1: GREEK ECONOMIES

9:45–10:30
Kaja Harter-Uibopuu | Austrian Academy of Sciences, Vienna
Decrees and treaties – the legal framework for the successful flow of goods and money

10:30–11:15
Vincent Gabrielsen | University of Copenhagen
"Mankind's most secure and durable institution": state, credit, trade and capital accumulation in the classical-early Hellenistic Aegean

11:15–11:45
Coffee break

11:45–12:30
Gerhard Thür | Austrian Academy of Sciences, Vienna
Michele Faraguna | University of Trieste
Silver from Laureion: mining and minting

12:30–14:00
Lunch break

14:00–14:45
Wolfgang Fischer-Bossert | Berlin
The flow of money within the Greek world

14:45–15:30
Alain Bresson | University of Chicago
Coins and Trade in Hellenistic Asia Minor: the Pamphylian hub

15:30–16:00
Tea break

Thu 30 October
Clubroom

16:00–16:45
Simon Keay | University of Southampton
The role of Portus in commercial flows between Rome and Mediterranean ports

16:45–17:30
Annalisa Marzano | University of Reading
Large-scale fishing and the Roman production and trade in salted fish: some organizational aspects

19:30
Speakers’ dinner (by invitation only)

SECTION 2: THE ROMAN ECONOMY

9:30–10:15
Claude Domergue | University of Toulouse II – Le Mirail
L'approvisionnement en métaux de l'Occident méditerranéen à la fin de la République et sous le Haut-Empire. Flux, routes, organisation.

10:15–11:00
Kevin Butcher | University of Warwick
Bernhard Woytek | Austrian Academy of Sciences, Vienna
Coin production and coin distribution in the Roman empire in the first and early second centuries AD: a general framework and some case studies

11:00–11:30
Coffee break

11:30–12:15
Suzanne Frey-Kupper | University of Warwick
Clive Stannard | University of Leicester
Evidence for the importation and monetary use of blocks of foreign and obsolete coin in the ancient world

12:15–13:00
Thomas Corsten | Austrian Academy of Sciences and University of Vienna
Negotiatores und lokale Märkte in Kleinasien

13:00–14:30
Lunch break

14:30–15:15
Thomas Kruse | Austrian Academy of Sciences, Vienna
The transport of goods through the Eastern Desert of Egypt

15:15–16:00
Ben Russell | University of Edinburgh
Quarry inscriptions, accounting systems, and the Roman stone trade

16:00–16:30
Tea break