WORKSHOP

MOVING BORDERS

CURRENT RESEARCH ON AFGHANISTAN BETWEEN INNER AND SOUTH ASIA

ORGANIZERS:
Austrian Academy of Sciences
Center for Interdisciplinary Research and Documentation of Inner and South Asian Cultural History (CIRDIS), University of Vienna

JANUARY 26, 2016
START: 11.45 AM
AUSTRIAN ACADEMY OF SCIENCES
THEATERSAAL
SONNENFELSGASSE 19, 1010 VIENNA
Welcome
Michael Alram | Vice President of the Austrian Academy of Sciences

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Time</th>
<th>Speaker</th>
<th>Institution</th>
<th>Title</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>11:45–12:15</td>
<td>Deborah Klimburg-Salter</td>
<td>University of Vienna</td>
<td>The Buddhist art of Kabul? A hierarchy of questions</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>12:15–12:45</td>
<td>Anna Filigenzi</td>
<td>University of Naples “L’Orientale”</td>
<td>Tapa Sardar, Mes Aynak, Tepe Narenj, Qol-e Tuit: steps towards a comprehensive art history of pre-Islamic Afghanistan</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

12:45–13:00 Discussion

13:00–14:30 Lunch Break

14:30–15:00

Minoru Inaba | Kyoto University                              |                                                   | Central Asia in the mid-eighth-century: Wukong’s itinerary toward India                   |

15:00–15:30

Fabrizio Sinisi | Austrian Academy of Sciences                  |                                                   | Iconographic transmission between western Iran and the Indo-Iranian Borderlands: Arsacid and Kushan royal imagery |

15:30–15:45 Discussion

15:45–16:00 Coffee Break

16:00–16:30

Nicholas Sims-Williams | University of London                          |                                                   | A Bactrian inscription from the tenth year of Kanishka I                                |

16:30–17:00

Nikolaus Schindel | Austrian Academy of Sciences                  |                                                   | Once again – Numismatic comments on the date of Kanishka                                 |

17:00–17:30 Closing discussion

---

FURTHER LECTURES

January 25, 2016
Start: 5:00 pm
Austrian Academy of Sciences, Theatersaal, Sonnenfelsgasse 19, 1010 Vienna

Lecture
Frantz Grenet | Collège de France and CNRS / École Normale Supérieure |                                                   | New perspectives on origins of the Fire Temples: recent archaeological discoveries in pre-Achemenid and Achemenid Central Asia |

January 26, 2016
Start: 9:30 am
Austrian Academy of Sciences, Theatersaal, Sonnenfelsgasse 19, 1010 Vienna

Lecture
Frantz Grenet | Collège de France and CNRS / École Normale Supérieure |                                                   | The Turkish Kingdom of Kabul-Zâbul (7th – 8th c. CE): a claim to translatio imperii?         |

The lectures are organized by the Austrian Academy of Sciences in cooperation with the Collège de France.