In Kooperation mit:

ÖUHK ÖSTERREICHISCH-UKRAINISCHE HISTORISCHE KOMMISSION

ukraine-office austria

universität wien

Historisch-Kulturwissen-schaftliche Fakultät

Institut für Osteuropäische Geschichte der Universität Wien, Uni-Campus, A-1090 Wien, Spitalgasse 2/Hof 3/Eingang 3.2 https://iog.univie.ac.at/

Research and Resistance: Ukrainian History and Historians in Times of the Russian War

© Office of the President of Ukraine

Freitag
16. Oktober 2026
14:00 – 19:30 Uhr
Hörsaal des IOG

PROGRAMM

Freitag, 16. Oktober, 14:00–19:30 Uhr

Universität Wien, Institut für Osteuropäische Geschichte
Spitalgasse 2, Hof 3, Tür 3.2, 1090 Wien

14:00–14:30h Welcome and Introduction

Wolfgang MUELLER
Ihor ZHALOBA

14:30–16:00h Panel I

Anton DROBOVYCH:
Documenting events in times of war: theoretical and applied aspects

Kateryna KOBCHENKO:
The best-documented war: War diaries and war reports from the Ukrainian side of the front

Mykhaylo TYAGLYY:
As a historian in the Ukrainian armed defense against Russia

16:00–16:30h Coffee break

16:30–18:00h Panel II

Alexandr OSIPIAN:
Historical legacy and resentment in the old industrial region: from memory wars to secessionist insurgency and full-scale war

Oksana MELNYK:
The Ukrainian frontline in the eye-witness accounts

Philip MALZAHN:
Reporting the Russian war against Ukraine

18:30–19:30h Film showing and discussion

Jasmin THOMA:
Asking Ukrainians: What War Really Does to People
(Film 2026, 32 min.)

Discussion

Tagung in englischer Sprache

Anmeldung ist erforderlich:
Termin buchen: Anmeldelink