

The Austrian Centre for Digital Humanities of the Austrian Academy of Sciences, Austria's leading non-university research facility, is seeking a team member for the Chist-Era project PROVIDEDH.

KNOWLEDGE DESIGNER (F/M) (part time, 20h/week)

The research group "methods and innovation" - exploration space welcomes an interdisciplinary and diverse community of academics and practitioners to join engaging in the challenges and opportunities of cyberspace on the interface of science, technology and society. We offer you exciting opportunities to implement your visions within an open minded, curious, international experimental research environment. The employment runs for one year in the first instance with the possibility of an extension.

Major responsibilities:

- responsibility for implementing citizen involvement component
- contribution to other work packages
- reporting to Project Coordinator, Research Group Coordinator
- community building within Austria (co-design and co-organise events)
- social media contributions
- international (scientific) dissemination, knowledge transfer & documentation of results
- contribution to international cooperations and projects
- representation in national and international (related) bodies
- furthering participatory processes in knowledge generation
- contribute to the experimental approaches
- teamwork in virtual intercultural and multilingual environments
- familiarity with stimulation and analysis of knowledge creation processes

Basic qualifications:

- in the framework of Media Arts, proven experience with and in depth knowledge about Agile and Scrum, design thinking, crowdsourcing, participatory approaches and citizen science
- hands on experience with open science and related infrastructures in the context of the Information and Knowledge Society
- familiarity with Open Innovation in Science methods and practices, academic orientation, track record
- fluent English.

Additional qualifications / Assets:

- Proven experience about working with museums and cultural/heritage institutions at an European level
- familiarity with knowledge organization systems and processes (Thesaurus, Taxonomies, Ontologies), virtual platforms
- technical experience with Internet content management systems
- experience in working in a non-academic environment
- development of research infrastructures
- proven leadership experience
- successful track record, successful grant applications and coordinated projects
- proven administrative and organizational skills
- further language skills, experience from abroad and artistic activities are beneficial

Personal skills:

Demonstrated ability to generate new ideas and to innovate, experience/curiosity to work on cultural diversity, excellent interpersonal skills, excellent communication skills, Open minded, creative, (cognitive) flexible, fast switching, inquisitive, tolerant, coordinating with others, complex problem-solving, critical thinking, proactive, enthusiastic.

Come back to us with your ideas how to improve our joint work! Be part of it!

We offer an annual gross salary of € 21.275,80 according to the collective agreement of the Austrian Academy of Sciences. Depending on qualification and experience, the salary is negotiable.

Applicants are invited to send their application documents (CV, letter of motivation, portfolio/reference projects) via e-mail to Eveline Wandl-Vogt at eveline.wandl-vogt@oeaw.ac.at, no later than December 15, 2018.