The Institute for Comparative Media and Communication Studies (CMC) of the Austrian Academy of Sciences (OeAW) and the University of Klagenfurt is offering a

POSTDOC POSITION (f*M)

(30h per week; 1 year)

in the FWF funded project “Journalism Innovations in Democratic Societies: Index, impact and preconditions in international comparison” (PI: Matthias Karmasin), starting on October 01st, 2022.

The ongoing project investigates how innovations in journalism influence the quality of reporting and thus the public in democratic societies. This is done in a comparison of the D-A-CH region with Northern European examples (UK) and a Southern Europe country (Spain) and is carried out in close cooperation of 5 national research teams.

Your tasks:

The position entails cooperative research in the international 5 countries-project collaborating with about 20 journalism researchers, presentations at conferences, publications in international scientific journals and preparing the final presentations of results in a conference in Vienna in September 2023.

Your profile:

- A doctorate in communication science or a closely related field is required with a focus on journalism research
- Preference will be given to candidates with a good knowledge of the media system in the D-A-CH region, especially of journalism in Austria
- Basic knowledge of the media system in the UK and Spain is favorable
- Very good language skills in German and English
- Very good communication skills for rotational management of the international team
- A willingness to cooperate and to work team-oriented in the Austrian group

Our offer:

We offer a part-time position (30 hours per week) which is scheduled for a period of one year for a yearly gross salary of €42,645.75 according to the salary scheme of the Austrian Science Fund (FWF). Depending on qualification and experience, the salary can be negotiated. CMC is located in the city center of Vienna (Bäckerstr. 13/ 1, 1010 Vienna) and we can offer flexible work time arrangements and office infrastructure in cooperation with the national research partner Medienhaus Wien. Please send your application including all relevant documents, certificates/references (mentioning Job ID: CMC105PD222) no later than August 07th, 2022 to cmc@oeaw.ac.at

The Austrian Academy of Sciences (OeAW) pursues a non-discriminatory employment policy and values equal opportunities, as well as diversity. Individuals from underrepresented groups are particularly encouraged to apply.