The Institute for Comparative Media and Communication Studies (CMC) of the Austrian Academy of Sciences (ÖeAW) and the University of Klagenfurt is offering 2 PhD Student Positions (f/m/x)

(part-time, 20-30h per week)

in the Horizon Europe Project “Fostering capacity building for civic resilience and participation: Dialogic communication ethics and accountability” (DIACOMET), managed by the Research Group “Media Accountability and Media Change” (MAMC), starting on January 01st, 2024, or later. The project aims to generate a concept of dialogic communication ethics, which would provide a framework for an inclusive model of accountability mechanisms that combine media accountability (the level of organizations) with civic accountability (the level of citizens). DIACOMET proposes to establish a European network of civic accountability bodies for supporting individuals, groups and organizations to implement a Civic Code of Good Communication Conduct, and to assist in managing ethical issues emerging in public communication.

Your tasks:
We are looking for researchers willing to support data collection, particularly through qualitative interviews, data analysis and the coordination and preparation of project reports. The positions entail research under supervision as well as international presentations and publications in international scientific journals.

Your profile:
- Master’s degree in communication science or a closely related field
- Very good knowledge of the Austrian media market
- Experience in conducting qualitative research in media organizations or with media users
- Project management skills are an advantage
- Fluency in German and English, both written and spoken
- Good communication skills
- Willingness to cooperate and to work team-oriented

Our offer:
We offer two employment contracts (50-75%) for a maximum of two and a half years (i.e. the end of the current Horizon project). The annual gross annual salary is a minimum of € 23,071.23 for a 50% position and € 34,606.85 for a 75% position, according to the collective agreement of the Austrian Academy of Sciences. Both positions may be extended if further third-party funding is obtained.

CMC is located in the city center of Vienna (Bäckerstraße 13, 1010 Wien) and we can offer flexible work time arrangements.

Please send your application documents including a curriculum vitae, a list of publications, an application letter, a documentation of qualifications (examination certificates/master diploma, etc.) and a sample publication (e.g., master thesis or other academic publication) no later than November 05th, 2023, via e-mail to Research Group Leader Dr Tobias Eberwein: tobias.eberwein@oeaw.ac.at (mentioning Job ID: CMC134DOC223)

The Austrian Academy of Sciences pursues a non-discriminatory employment policy and values equal opportunities and diversity. Individuals from underrepresented groups are particularly encouraged to apply.