The Institute for Medieval Research (IMAFO) of the Austrian Academy of Sciences (OeAW), Austria's leading non-university research and science institution, is offering a

POSTDOC POSITION (F*M)

(full-time, 40 hours per week)

starting on September 1, 2021, at the Division for Historical Identity Research at the Institute for Medieval Research.

The division Historical Identity Research is dedicated to the research on the European Middle Ages in general. Special emphasis is laid on the formation of ethnic and political groups, identity and alterity, as well as structural change. This is achieved on the basis of careful study of the extant source texts, of their manuscript transmission and their context. Moreover, an interdisciplinary, comparative approach is applied, which is employed in a global perspective.

The division consists of three working groups: "Communities, Peoples, Mobility", "Political Transformation and Plurality" and "Textual Networks and Translation Cultures".

Your tasks:

- Work in the FWF project 'Carolingian Culture in Septimania and Catalonia (CCSC)', in particular for the critical edition of the late Carolingian homiliary of Luculentius
- Collaboration in the collection and description of the manuscript tradition from the 9th to the 11th century in Septimania and Catalonia
- Work with the data base for the digital collection of the manuscripts relevant for the project

Your profile:

- Completed doctoral degree in an area of Medieval Studies, particularly desirable in Latin Philology
- Experience in work on critical text editions
- International publications and presentations
- Competence and experience in the scope of Digital Humanities
- Academic experience abroad and an international network
- Flexibility, strong communication skills, creativity, able to work well in a team
- Excellent English, Spanish and Catalan are essential.

We offer an annual gross salary corresponding to FWF Postdocs (presently € 55.242,60). The position is limited with the end of the project on August 31, 2024.

To apply for the position, please send a written letter of intent including academic CV, copies of certificates, a list of publications and a two-sided outline of your proposed research and projects via email to imafo@oeaw.ac.at (mentioning Job ID: IMAFO077PD121) no later than July 31, 2021.
