PHD STUDENT POSITION (F*M) in Phonetics

(part-time / 30h per week)

ARI is an interdisciplinary research institution of Austria's leading non-university research facility. It undertakes top-level research in psychoacoustics and experimental audiology, phonetics, musicology and bioacoustics, physical and computational acoustics, and mathematics and signal processing. The close interaction of the working groups allows innovative research approaches through the synergistic effects of multidisciplinary research. ARI employs ~40 academic, technical and administrative staff. The position is assigned to the Acoustic Phonetics Group.

The successful candidate will work on a topic at the interface of phonetics and psycholinguistics within the research areas of the group leader Eva Reinisch. Possible topics include the integration of different types of acoustic information during speech perception, or the adaptation to different acoustic environments in speech perception and production over different time-scales.

Your tasks:

- experiments and data analysis
- preparing journal publications
- international conference presentations

Your profile:

- Master's degree or diploma with excellent scores in Phonetics, Psycholinguistics, Linguistics, or Psychology
- good knowledge of Phonetics (acoustics, perception)
- experience in experimental work
- good knowledge of written and oral English
- at least a basic knowledge of German is desirable
- flexibility, ability to learn fast and the ability to work independently as well as in a scientific team

We offer a part-time position for 3 years. The desired starting date is November 1, 2020 or as soon as possible thereafter. The annual gross salary is € 30.878,40 (before taxes) according to the salary scheme of the Austrian Academy of Sciences.

Candidates should send a CV, copies of relevant certificates, names and full contact details of two referees, and a brief statement describing motivations, personal qualifications, and research interests by e-mail to Eva Reinisch eva.reinisch@oeaw.ac.at (mentioning Job ID: ISF069DOC120) no later than September 15, 2020.
