

The Institute for Urban and Regional Research of the Austrian Academy of Sciences (ÖAW), Austria's central non-university research institution, is offering a

PRAE DOC POSITION (F/M) (part time, 20h/week) in the field of urban research with a special focus on the Viennese housing market.

Responsibilities:

- Independent and team-based scientific work in an ongoing research project on the housing market in Vienna.
- Assistance in (spatial) data analyses, implementation of qualitative interviews, coordination and communication within the project team.

Requirements:

- University degree (Mag., MA) in a subject of spatial research (geography, spatial planning, urban sociology, ...)
- Experience with quantitative and qualitative methods of empirical social research
- Software skills (Excel, SPSS, ArcGIS)
- Additional knowledge in the field of urban geography, economic geography, housing market

We offer:

- An interesting and diversified field of work in the innovative setting of a scientific institution that is steeped in tradition (for more information see www.oeaw.ac.at/isr).
- the possibility to further independent scientific qualifications.
- An annual gross salary of € 19.464,20 according to the collective agreement of the Austrian Academy of Sciences. Depending on qualification and experience, the salary is negotiable.

The position is initially limited to 1,5 years. Work would start on 1.3.2019.

Applicants are invited to send their application documents (CV, letter of motivation, educational certificates and references) via e-mail as pdf attachments to Ms. Barbara Biziak at isr@oeaw.ac.at no later than January 31, 2019.

The Austrian Academy of Sciences values diversity and is committed to equality of opportunity.

If you have any questions concerning the content of the application, please contact PD Dr. Robert Musil (email: robert.musil@oeaw.ac.at).

We look forward to receiving your application!