

The Austrian Archaeological Institute is an internationally renowned institution in the field of archaeological basic science. The core strength of the institute is field archaeology in all its sub disciplines as well as cultural and historical analyses based on material remains. The research sites of the OeAI are concentrated in Egypt and the Greco-Roman cultural regions in Europe and the Mediterranean and includes the chronological and geographical peripheries. The tasks of the OeAI are managed through its institutes in Vienna, Athens, and Cairo within the framework of national and international cooperation agreements.

At the Austrian Archaeological Institute (ÖAI) of the Austrian Academy of Science (ÖAW) the following vacancy has to be filled by 1st of September 2018:

SENIOR-POST-DOC-POSITION (F/M)

for Archaeological Building Research and Cultural Heritage
(Fulltime, 40h/week)

Tasks

- Set up and coordination of a research group „Archaeological Building Research and Cultural Heritage“ at the ÖAI
- Management and implementation of projects in the fields of Archaeological Building Research and Cultural Heritage following the current research program (2018-2020) in Austria and abroad
- Development of new research projects in the fields of Archaeological Building Research and Cultural Heritage
- Acquisition of third-party funds

Requirements

- PhD (or doctorate) in architecture with a doctoral thesis in archaeological building research
- Additional qualification in an archaeological discipline
- Work experience in the field of archaeological building research and cultural heritage
- Experience in managing projects
- Excellent publication productivity
- Willingness to conduct extended field projects abroad
- Passion for innovative and interdisciplinary research
- Capacity for teamwork

The Senior PostDoc will start on September 1, 2018 and the length appointment is 1 year with the possibility for an extension. We are approaching interested candidates, prepared to exercise the aforementioned duties for a yearly gross salary of € 47,332.60 for Senior PostDocs. Depending on qualification and experience salary can be negotiated.

The Austrian Academy of Sciences is an equal opportunity employer.

We hope to have garnered your interest in this position and kindly request you to send a written application (detailed CV, cover letter, photograph, copies of degrees, at least 2 international reference letters, list of publications) electronically by July 31, 2018 to Ulrike Kousek-Lang bewerbung@oeai.at.

We look forward to your application.